“ James was one of my favorite cousins a lot of folks in the family name their children after him. the scriptures say a good name is better than riches. James Wesley Homer. He was a middle child like I was and he was my protector when we were little kids. Growing up in South Texas I wasn't very like by some of my family members. He would often say don't don't mind them you pretty. When his daughter was born he said ples Etta she looks like you. I said no James she's beautiful I'm not. What an honor to be in the same breath with James. In 1965 I got struck by lightning and survived I was bedridden for about a week he walk 9 miles in the heat to ask me and I quote girl you still alive. That was James. He held my hand and that day we reminisced. we shared one drumstick needless to say he took a tiny bite and let me eat the rest that's the kind of stand-up guy James was. As we got older and decline in years we didn't get a chance to spend much time together but when we did it was like we were those little hungry kids in that South Texas Heat talkin business and it was like we had never been apart. We love you James rest in peace buddy until the resurrection. Ples Etta Schnitzer (tute) and family.

“ James was a devout family man. I remember how he would the kids fishing (his nephews), he would gather his kids and nieces and nephews around him and they would random songs. It didn't matter if they sang off key he simply loved spending time with the kids. He will be missed and he is definitely loved.
