

KENNETH DWAYNE SMITH

August 3, 1948 - February 16, 2018

Kenneth D. Smith answered the call from heaven and quietly laid down his physical body on Friday, February 16, 2018. He was born in Dallas, Texas, on August 3, 1948, to the parentage of Helen V. Williams and Morsie “Buddy” Smith, both of whom preceded him in death. Kenneth would remain in Dallas his entire life so that he could stay close to his family.

He accepted Christ at an early age and united with the New Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. G.T. Britt.

In addition to his family members, Kenneth was beloved by his numerous friends. They nicknamed him “Hollywood Shorty” (or just “Hollywood”) for his ever-stylish sense of dress because he was always “dressed to the nines.” He was equally well known for his sense of humor and ability to see the positive side of life. Kenneth could also be serious when it was important. He was smart and typically promoted into supervisory and management positions throughout his career.

Kenneth leaves to cherish his memories: his four children, Troy Sanders, Karon Warren, Lashandia Warren and Jason Williams; three sisters, Rose M. Obaze, Imelda R. (Chambers) Walters and Olivia D. (Anthony) Hudson; two Brothers, Jimmie D. Williams and Rodrick Jemerson; as well as numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He will be missed by all who wish him Godspeed as he enters heaven’s gates to a joyous homecoming.
