“ Mother Edwards you will always be remembered in my lifetime as the teacher of all. In the classroom, in the church and in life. You a Woman of God with a Sweet sweet spirit and loving heart. You lived a good life and showed love to your family who passed on before you and those you left have a legacy I pray they honor. Living to live a gain see you on the other side. One of your daughters, Trece

A Phenomenal Woman

The second generation of freed slaves, and the youngest child of a sharecropper and kitchen hairdresser in Oakwood, TX is where I spent my youthful days.

Sent to Dallas to attend Paul Quinn was when I discovered my new life would begin.

Graduated from college with a Bachelor's in Education and to catch the eye of a handsome young man was my next destination.

So, I married my groom and we started a family, and promised to serve the Lord and always be marry.

But many Friends thought that I had reached my peak, but as a phenomenal woman there was more I would seek.

So I raised the bar and received a Master's degree, and kicked down each door because you would see “me”.

Although I am done on Earth *that might be.

But look to Sun and Star shining bright , cause that's where I'll be,
a phenomenal woman,
"Alene G. Edwards, "that' me".*
