

BETTY JEAN WASHINGTON

October 31, 1931 - August 30, 2021

Betty Jean Washington was born on October 31, 1931, in Amarillo, Texas to Pearl Foster. Betty attended public schools. Betty (Elect Lady) served as the mother of Cornerstone House of God. She continued her commitment to the church until her death. Betty was known as the neighborhood granny to all that knew her. Betty joined in holy matrimony to James J. Washington on February 14, 1954. To this union they were blessed with their children: Vernetia (Albert), Sandra (David), Brenda (Lee), and Lisa (Steve).

Betty was a dedicated homemaker and employee of Wilmer Hutchins, where she retired. She was preceded in death by her mother, Pearl Foster, husband, James J. Washington, Jr., brothers, Thomas Richardson and Lewis Richardson, sisters, Pauline Foster and Dorothy Richardson, and grandsons, Cam'ron Small, and Tre. Betty leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Vernetia, Sandra, Brenda, and Lisa; grandchildren, Quincy (Kerra), Marvin (Pooh), Kelvin, Lee Jr. (Latisha), Lawrence, Andre, Chantell (Roderick), BreNesha (Paris), Jasmine (Greg), La'Quice, and Lauren (Charles); 25 great-grandchildren, one great-greatgrandchild; special family, sister-in-law, Mary WashingtonGayden; her sister Dorothy's children, Stanley and LaMearl; special great-niece, Kosha; Freeman Family; Warren Family; Washington

Family; Richardson Family; best friend, Zoe; and a host of church family and friends.
