“ What a wonderful guy. He was my patient for years in homehealth. No matter how bad he felt, he never was cross or angry. My fondest memory was seeing him drive up one day in his truck. He parked in a fire lane and I told him I would move it for him since his Parkinson's was acting up that day. When I tried to drive this truck it was like it had been put together backwards! I finally got it to move from the fire lane only to come inside and find him laughing at me. He was amazed I could drive it; I too was amazed he could drive it. Rest in Peace my friend.
