

CHARLOTTE MYERS

May 30, 1962 - December 2, 2021

Charlotte Ervette Nichols was born on May 30, 1962, the youngest child of Willie Mae Nichols and James Traylor.

She was very educated and graduated from Lincoln High School, Dallas School District.

Charlotte, better known as “Blacky,” loved her family, bingo, and vacations. Dancing, smiling, and having a peaceful time were all she wanted to do when she came around. Charlotte’s grandkids were her life, and they knew she was their life also.

Charlotte was preceded in death by her grandmother, Lucille Burns; father, James Traylor; sister, Rita Lawson; brothers, Vickey Finney and Anthony Nichols; and daughter, Stephanie Thomas.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: husband, Roy L. Henderson; daughter, Shequilla Nichols; sons, Marcell Nichols and Reginald Myers; grandkids, Everrick Murrell, Parker Mysers, Deja King, Jada Thomas, Theresa Garay, Nevaeh Nichols, Mason Nichols, Madison Nichols, Kataleya Nichols, and Damayia Myers; sisters, Corloyn Finney and Elenor Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.

“ This a memory of my granny.... I remember when I always got in trouble and she would take up for me and hug me I miss my granny so much like everyday. she was the best granny I've ever had she was always there for me and my brother she would break her neck for us that's how much she loved us.... I miss you granny I hope to see you again ❤️
