“ Chris I can't believe that you are not going to be here with us anymore. I remember one time (and only once) you got me so good that I didn't have a comeback but every time after that I was ready for you :) Now who am I going to argue with and talk trash to? It was always fun when you walked in and I will truly miss you. Rest easy friend!

*P.S. My mama did like you better :)

“ Heaven gained a larger than life personality in Christopher Harris. He had a heart of gold and cared deeply about others. If you were in his presence, he would be two steps ahead to ensure you could always count on him, if needed. Nothing made him happier than to meet a need, whether it be for his family, a friend, a co-worker, or a complete stranger. He regularly sacrificed personal gains, to meet the needs of others. Christopher also had a competitive spirit in all of his endeavors. Please note, he wasn't shy when his football team, (The Dolphins) was putting a beat-down on my unstoppable Dallas Cowboys. He made no bones about the fact that he was going to win! He had a fearless approach to life. Verbal banter was fun to him, but grudges were never held.
