“ Every year, we wish each other a Happy Birthday. 9 days apart on our birthday. I loved, still love your voice, your sweet calm voice when you speak to me. The way you say my name. You invited me into your heart and home. It’s hard to forget you. It’s hard to remember you without feeling a strong tense in my chest knowing I can’t no longer call or message you to wish you a Happy Birthday and get advise from you. You inspired me to be a woman who God has anointed me to be. Mommy, I miss you everyday. I pray over your soul and your family. May God continue to guide and strengthen their hearts as we reflect on November 11th. I miss you my lovable aunty. Chimdinma Anyanwu Udeozoh is so thankful to know a woman like you. You meant so much to me than I can ever express. We will meet again at the right hand of our father, the lord that we both serve has received you in his arms and all I can do is know that he created a wonderful, beautiful and kind woman named Cordelia “Adaigbo” Nwokocha.
