“ David and I were together 3 years 3 Mos. He made me laugh, until my cheeks and stomach hurt. We would have the most interesting conversations for hours and of we came upon something we didn't know about, we always Google it. He was loving, kind, handsome, funny, and very well spoken. I miss him so much. You don't really realize what you have until it's gone. The night before we asked each other, " what heaven would be like?" And he said since our souls go to heaven; we don't have feet so why did we need roads paved with gold?" We laughed and laughed. I will never forget David and I will always love him. Until I see you again my love.

“ Praying continually God's comfort and strength for Sis Faye Paris and family in the passing of her son David Paris. I remember him growing up and she would bring him to church.
