“ Dwight was a wonderful guy and respected by his peers in Fort Smith. Coming from a prominent and respected family. We attended the same church First Church of God in Christ and took part in church activities. Very intelligent and classy clothes dresser. He will be missed.

“ Dwight grew up down the street from us, the Steward family. I remember me and my sister going to play with him at his grandmother's house Mrs. Huffman. Dwight was a great guy and we talked over the phone periodically. He will be missed. RIP my brother
