

GLORIS JEAN CASEY

May 1, 1930 - November 2, 2017

Gloris Jean Casey was born May 1, 1930 in Navarro County to the parentage of Frank and Lenora Coleman. She married the love of her life, Henry Casey on January 24, 1948.

She professed Christ at an early age and united and served with several churches in Dallas, TX: New Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church, St. Phillips Missionary Baptist Church, Golden Gate Baptist Church, Greater Golden Gate Baptist Church, and United Christian Baptist Church. She remained faithful throughout her life until ailing health overcame her.

She was “Spirit led, and Bible fed”, and her favorite scripture, “In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths.” (Proverbs 3:6), will be in our hearts always.

She leaves to cherish her memory: Henry (H.C.) Casey, her “children,” niece Gloria Sims and husband Leo, nephew Lester Coleman and wife Karen, great nieces Erika Jones and Corianda (Cori) Battles-Coleman, great nephew Nathaniel Coleman, her loving brother Mark Coleman; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends, and neighbors.

“ I couldn't believe it was true. When i received the news of your passing on, I shared a tear for your happiness! I thanked you before as growing up as a little girl to a women! Being in church, you had the most BEAUTIFUL SMILE! I loved to see you and Bro. Casey walk through the doors. Thank you for your presence of peace you giving me. It's something i will never forget. Farewell on your beautiful journey...

Thank You For Loving My Great Aunt, Your Kind Words Even Now Ring So True. She Has A Radiance About Her Almost Like She Floated Whilst She Walked. I Miss Her Dearly And Though Her Time Here With Is Long Over Her Presence Here Is Still A Beautiful Breath Of Fresh Air.
