“ Sharing memories of my cuz Pops. From him selling me my first car at 19 year old, to driving from the Breeders Cup to Louisiana Downs Racetrack, to hanging out with me and my brothers and family on Friday nights on Bright street. Our last conversation was on November 27th. His son called me from the hospital bed. He had enough energy to talk to me and my Mom. He said Cuz, I Love You and Cousin Rosemary. We won't be going to races anymore. That was a hard call to hear but I'm grateful that I had a chance to talk to him one last time.

Rest In Heaven Cuz and Thank you for so many memories.

See you when we get there.

“ The last time I saw my childhood friend, Pop, was the night after our High School commencement, he received his diploma, took off his cap and gown, we said good-bye to each other, and he got into a 1956 Ford that looked similar to the one in this picture and started his journey for the next 55 years. We recently reconnected and had some great conversations.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

“ I had the opportunity to talk to Mr Henry, as I called him, about a month ago with his wife Ms. Kathy, as I call her. It wasn't a long call because they don't talk on the phone long, but before the call ended he yelled out "We love you" in the background and I returned the sentiment. He was always good to me and I am so thankful that I had the honor of having him in my life. You are flying high and looking down. Keep looking over us and we'll see you again. Love you very much 🙏😊😊😊❤️❤️!

“ My uncle pop I still can't believe you are gone. I am literally In tears typing this. Every time I saw you it was Hey Niece or I come to the shop and see you or even you just checking in on me like an uncle did! I would look at you and always see my daddy! Crazy thing is I think you and Daddy were twins low key... I pray that your transition to heaven is a beautiful one and that you are reunited with your loved ones and y'all are angels watching over us all! I love you Unc
