“ This month would have been 14 years of having a best friend and brother in one. We made so many memories and they've all been rushing back. Now I understand that saying where does the time go cuz man... You were the one person I could call and talk to about anything. I feel like I lost the one person who really knows me. You always made me laugh and taught me to lighten up. You got me through a lot of things twin. I love you and I'm always going to miss you.

MO

My darling baby boy,

Ever since you were a baby, you always knew how to make me laugh, especially when my heart was breaking. Only you knew how to make me laugh uncontrollably.

If you didn't know it, I'll tell you now. I love you more than life itself and I pray the ancestors will always be with you and protect you in heaven.

Until we meet again my son
