“ Hey uncle ,I’m know I’m not you real niece but I still loved you to death and nothing could or will ever change that.I know you can see what’s going on down here.We took a pretty hard lose when you passed especially your siblings and mama.If we could find who did this to you I swear we would and let’s just say sum would go down.Uncle we really miss you and we love you so much.Life has been all twisted since you left us down here on this dark place called earth.But most of all we know your not going through any this and god please treat my uncle right.We love you and see you soon.

Love,
