

Ms Joann Bolden

December 16, 2024

Joann Tucker Bolden was born on September 24, 1944, to L.C. Tucker and Margaret C. Tucker in Thornton, Texas. She began her education at Rosenwald Elementary, attending from 1st to 7th grade, and later went to Washington High School in Groesbeck, Texas. During her senior year, her family moved to Dallas, Texas, where she completed her high school education at Lincoln High School.

On December 28, 1962, Joann married her childhood sweetheart, Carl E. Bolden. Together, they were blessed with three children: Melanie C. Bolden, Bryant C. Bolden, and Kevin C. Bolden. Joann was also a proud grandmother to two grandchildren, Neil B. Bolden and Collin J. Bolden.

Joann leaves behind cherished memories with her four sisters, Martha Lewis, Dorothy Tucker, Renee Tucker, and Tammy Salmond, and her two brothers, Travis Tucker and K.C. Tucker. She also leaves a special niece and nephew, Yolanda Watkins and Jared Jackson.

“ I hold a big space in my heart for my Grandma Bolden. I am not her blood, but she accepted me & loved me as if I always was, & to me, there is nothing more special than that. She loved my daughter from thr moment she saw her, & I wish they had gotten more time together, but I know that the moments they did share meant the world to her, & she will live on through her grabdbabies that she loved so very much. We are all lucky to have felt the warmth of her love. 🍀💙💜❤️

“ My Aunt Ann,

*Words cannot express the loss that I'm feeling without you now. The love that I have for you is immeasurable. The love that you showed me was immeasurable. I wish that I could turn back the hands of time, but I can only reminisce for now until I see you again. Fly high aunty, Fly high!

“ God made you my sister, but you're more than that. You're my forever friend. I'll miss our sisterly chats and the advice you gave when needed. To me, you were like a great bra, you were always supportive, you never left me hanging, you made me look good and the best part is, you will always be close to my heart. Rest well and I will see you later. Your loving sister Renee
