“ *A loving Memorial For
Kenneth Earl Hutchison
December 20, 1947 – May 5, 2019*

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.*

Kenneth Earl Hutchison was the firstborn to the parentage of William Hutchison II of Texas and Lillian E Morris of Virginia. Both parents preceded him in death. He was the eldest of seven children. His brother, Paul Lawrence Hutchison also preceded him in death.

Kenneth completed his early education in the Dallas public school system, and he completed an Associate in Science, from Lee College, in Baytown TX.

He leaves to cherish his life: Margaret Howard, Diane Woods, Maureen Hutchison, Irene Hutchison, Paula Hutchison, William Hutchison III, Damien Crowe, Lashawn Woods, Calvin, Woods, Satoya (Anthony) Hemphill, Crystal Hutchison and a host of others relatives.

Kenneth was a “deep” thinker and an avid reader; he lived most of his life as a loner. He had many talents; of those, singing and playing his base guitar were his best and he loved debating the world’s issues. His greatest desire was for all black men to live freely.
