“ Hi, I'm Pastor C. Ray Calhoun, and Pastor Larry and I are the greatest of friends. Pastor Larry always had a sense of humor and would keep my laughing. We always talked about church and business. From the barber college to getting the church, (which I preached at more than once), to the car wash, where I would stop by and get my vehicles cleaned and detail. I remember riding in the jeep and telling him I was going to borrow it and take the doors off. (LOL) I am going to miss him in an extreme way. I pray the family and friends are comforted by the sweet Spirit of THE ALMIGHTY. Thanks Yolando.

“ May you find comfort during this time of loss. We first met Larry while growing up and living in the Alta Mesa Community of Dallas.
