“ Please change is title to Dr., Rev., or Chaplain. Each of these distinctions hold value to all that loved and knew him. He was a man who lived as educator and academician, minister and exhorter of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and exemplar of the edits of Christ through care and compassion for all in his presence and beyond, thus, Dr., Rev., and Chaplain.

*Amen Fellow Traveler!
Very well stated and I agree!!
I will always refer to him as Pastor L. Stacy Cowan....and he truly cared about all God's people! In his eyes, Everybody was God's somebody to him. A poem that truly reflects the awesome and amazing journey he was on was written by Michael Josephson and was entitled "Live A Life That Matters!". It spoke volumes about Pastor Stacy and his vision and work on the "Perpetual Prayer Center" shall not be in vain! I will always remember all our conversations about it, God, and God people, and his special love for his family and church family!*

*Pastor Leonard Cowan an example of God's chosen. He heard the CALL of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and accepted it and started the ministry of Jesus Christ. Among all of the goals accomplished, his greatest was leading those unsaved to our Lord Jesus Christ. Pastor Cowan's passion toward our YOUTH and their education man was exemplary. He was encouraging our Youth to carry the "torch" that was laid down by our ancestors. Our Youth he would always say "continue with your head held high. I'm saying so long Skipper for now brother, my spiritual adviser, my friend, my protector when we were children (just us) and lastly my Pastor. "Skipper's journey here on earth has come to an end. The Lord is your shepherd Skipper, he has now taken you with him for Eternal Life, Well done my brother I'm looking forward to seeing you again, I will always love you, admire you "my wind beneath my wings".
