

LESSIE LOUISE DOTSON

December 30, 1955 - January 15, 2022

Lessie Louis Dotson was born on December 30, 1955, in Panola County, Texas to the late Helen Thomas and late Robert Malcolm. Lessie was the youngest child.

Lessie attended school in Pacoima, California and later in life moved to Dallas, Texas with her family.

Lessie worked faithfully and diligently in the hotel industry.

Lessie was a mother and friend to all and known as the “goto person” because of her heart to help. She loved her family beyond measures. Whoever was in the presence of Lessie felt her unconditional love and compassion.

The most important life reflection of Lessie was that she redicated her life to Christ as her Lord and Savior in the presence of her son, Derrick, daughter, LaShonda, and only niece, Shenicka (Moonie).

Lessie was preceded in death by her grandmother, Gracie Mae Allison; her mother, Helen Thomas; Robert Malcolm; and her brother, James Malcolm.

Left to continue Lessie’s legacy and to cherish her memories are: her children, Derrick Dotson and LaShonda Dotson; five grandchildren, Montez, Ariana, Devon, Markeist, and LaMarcu; only niece, Shenicka (Moonie) Payne (Jerry Williams); grandnieces, Shjerian, Jeriona, Janiya, and Breanna; aunts, Ella Williams, Dorothy Shannon, and Ruby; her fiancée, Clyde Hodge (Shorty); and a host of family and friends.
