I will forever miss you, Lillian. Thank you for believing in me and allowing me to tutor your two granddaughters. I knew something had happened, when I could no longer reach you by phone. I'll see you soon, when Jesus calls us all together. Robbie

“ Lillian was an outstanding person with great personality. I remember getting a letter in mail with a note and a piece of candy_ it lifted my spirits ! Also ,going back to 1991 Bacon Family Reunion, ,as Walter and Willie Mae were finishing the video and taping Lillian sang a very heart felt rendition of "Because He Lives_". "I can face tomorrow " . "And than one day _".Truely missed already.

“ Lillian was an amazing woman. She was vital to the Bacon Jackson Family as we celebrated the family history and came together in reunions. I offer my condolences to the family. In the days ahead I pray you find comfort in the memories and the love. Lillian was always helpful to those in the family.

I pray for the family.

“ Mrs. Bacon was simply a great person, who adored her family. She will be tremendously missed; however, thank the LORD indeed for blessing her family and friends with a life well spent. In retrospect, she cut our hair at her barber shop across the street from C.F. CARR. MAY the LORD SUSTAIN THE FAMILY with His awesome peace! Candidly submitted, J. Calvin Smith.
