“ It still seem so unreal that you're not here in the flesh with us anymore. I still feel your presence and it brings me peace to know that you're at peace. I'm going to always remember the conversations we had and the laughs we shared. I knew I could count on you for anything especially prayers. I'm grateful that the Lord gave us all so much time with you and I know that we will all meet up again. Until then, just continue to watch over us all and give Baby Kingston a hug and kiss everyday.

I love you GM!
