“Lynee was one of my Best Friends, as soon as we meant through my other Best Friend Nancy we have been inseparable, we have had so many great moments in life. Our kids grew up with each other. She was such a Beautiful person who loved everyone she meant, she talked about God everyday all day and her up bringing that introduced her to God. She was one of the few people that has still been around for 30 years. That I trusted with my life. This is as long as I have been in the DFW area when I moved here the end of 93. When we last talked we were planning to do many events and try to make one of our favorite groups concert. (8 Ball and MJG) this month, but God seen different. I know she was tired, she was a Hard Worker, Great Mother amongst other titles. She was my Friend. I Love You Lynn Lynn and I am going to truly miss you My Love. I can go on forever but it would still not be enough time. Tell my Mom I said Hello. I'm preparing to see you again
