“ My Auntie..My BFF...My Boo! Thank you for being there whenever I called or texted you. Thank you for listening and giving advise without judgement but with love and understanding. The pain that I feel is indescribable. My heart hurts...I feel like I can't breathe anytime I think or talk about you..the impact that you had on my life and others will never be forgotten! Thank you for leaving tiny footprints on my heart! I love you so much! Fly high, watch over us, and Rest In Love!

“ I will always remember you bringing home bottle caps for us kids to use to buy free sodas at the store. It was the small things that counted.You treated me like I was one of your own and always welcomed me into your home. Even tho you fed four kids you had an extra plate for me. Mrs. Joyce I love you and Rest In Peace. 🥺

“This one hit different. My Aunt Joyce. She was always in a good mood; always had a smile on her face, always laughing, always joking. She gave so much to her family and friends. She was a loving soul and I can't believe she's really gone but she's no longer suffering so I cherish those moments I've had with her. I love you Aunt Joyce.

“Speechless really, I still can't believe it. I don't want to believe it either. My diary , my bodyguard, my safe haven is no longer here physically. I know you're with me every step I take spiritual and that makes this somewhat easier to deal with. I love you. I'll always think of you. Thank you for everything you've ever done for me. Words can't express how grateful I am to have had such a wonderful soul in my life. Forever yours , Juice 💙

“ *Momma Joyce, Momma Joyce, Momma Joyce.
I love you beyond words. You had an encouraging word always and sometimes a few choice ones when I was doing wrong. Just as a mother should. There will be no holiday the same and celebrations will be missing your vibrant presence and smile. I love you and will always miss you.*

“ I talked with you on Saturday, never realizing that would be the last time, you were my sister from another mother..i loved u then and I love you now..i will miss our talks and text messages and definitely our laughs together. I can't count the years that we have been friends..my maid of honor over 40 years ago...u invited me to birthday celebrations, family reunions whatever your family had when you came into town..i will definitely miss our talks and laughs.. You were my sister and my friend. Rest in Love ❤️ Annette

“ I am awake with you on my mind. I am thinking about the things we use to do like going to NTSU for the greek shows and dressing like Deltas bc Donna and Bev was one. Everybody was asking them "r they twins and what college r from 🤔. And your Pastor stopped his sermon to ask "Sister Wilder, how can u b in the choir and n the congregation at the same time 🤔. There r many more memories that i will cherish n my heart forever. I want the family to know that i am there when you need me. I look forward to seeing you in that big mansion in the sky. LOVE ALWAYS.

“ T Jones. Whoa this a tuff one. Since the age of 6 you been apart of my life, and made me feel like I came out your womb. Threw all of our ups and downs. We grew a bond, and love for each other that's unexplainable. You are you the only person in this world who 100% know me, and that means a lot more than what's it sounds like. Only you would understand what I mean when I say that. I love you soo much, and iama miss you soo much. Forever, and a day. Rest easy Tjones.

“ Aunt Joyce, I love you!!! You were amazing! No matter what you uplifted me! You were one of the first people to ever make me feel pretty in my own skin (I cherished that more than you knew) you were the only one to get my mama together when it came to me in my adult life. You were there for me at a very low place in my life and I will NEVER forget it. Trying so hard not to be selfish and miss you and want you back but God knew what was best. Your home going is the first that ever made me feel like I got punched in the heart and gut at the same time. You are tremendously missed but no more pain boo!! You were truly 1 of a kind. F CANCER! Until I see you again, see you later bu!

I sit and say to myself to "wake up" but i dont b sleep. This has taken a BIG toll on my heart bcause it was too sudden but u never question GOD. I am thankful he gave us the chance to be sister/cousins as he did and the the look alike ability. I will never 4get the pastor at your church stopped the service and asked "Sister Wilder how can u b in the choir and n the audience at the same time"? That messed him up 🤔. I am going to miss our morning talks we had every other morning if not every morning. Until we meet again, I LOVE U GIRL!! 😊😭
