“ Meme, I remember when me and you used to play with my dolls. I would walk into your room and give you one of my dolls, and we would start braiding their hair. You would always make the most funniest braids, and we would laugh. After you were done, you would help me make my braids. I will remember so many special moments we had together. You were the best Great-grandmother anyone could ever have. I will miss being able to share my days about school with you. You also made the best of the best chili ever! Your cooking always made me feel so full, sleepy, and happy.

Love your oldest Great- granddaughter, Mary

“Mama, I will always remember how you used to play the piano and how we would sing together. Although I tried to learn to play, I never could. I couldn't understand how you used to play different keys with both hands. I later learned that playing was not my gift, but singing was my gift. When you carried me, you said you were going to name me Michelle, but the people at the church wanted you to name me Melody, but you liked the name Melanie better. Therefore, Melanie was it. Thank you because I love my name!

Love you always and forever mama.
