Death is a challenge. It tells us not to waste time. It tells us to tell each other right now that "We love each other". - Cassaundra

It was a miracle that daddy was able to do all of the things he did for so long. He was stubborn at times but I'm happy that he can now rest peacefully. - Mya

My dad was funny and would get up and do anything for anyone. – Maddy

“ Mikki, I had the pleasure of meeting you when you were a wild kid on the South Side. My father and your mother worked at that small store Park It Market (lol). I will always remember the conversations we had just talking about everything and sometimes things that made no sense at all. I know God has work for you and that smile will be remembered always. Rest and start your journey with the Lord.

Love Always

“ Mikki and I go back to the 80,s. We worked together. We were like mother and son. He called me mom. We had a common bond (Jesus) we stuck together at lunch and break. I have been with him in spirit all during these last months of physical trial. He is the bravest soldier I know. His life and dedication to God is the heritage he leaves. I love him with all my heart and will MISS his daily “Good Morning Sweetheart”!

Sorry to hear of the passing of Mikki we attended High school together. After graduating from High school I would sometimes run into him in passing. He had the same beautiful kind personality. All the Hunt brothers were nice very respectable. May God bless his family during this very difficult time. Praying for his family.
