“ ALWAYS AN OCCASION: SHE LEFT US WITH HOPE

*Always an occasion, Neomi even now bids a smile to ones who'd had a moment In her lens.
Even now she bids a smile to us who saw
That unmatched beam, heard her laugh.*

*We marvel at Our own, trying to fashion chuckle
thru tuff terrain, bleating news,
market tides & queried eyes:
Why would she aim to bring joy to the rest,
Where many look dazed, dull to progress?
Our aunt, Queen Mum, friend, grandmother,
from first to last meeting
dealt your time an occasion.
Our Lucy in the Sky revealed diamonds to man searching heavens
For God's most loving angel guild.
She flies now we think, amidst gentle if sweet
Winds & others we miss... where chariot of light preserves
Even us a seat, occasion once more to meet.*

*Then we'll ask this matriarch, our tall dark Oak
"why'd you stay with us so long,
Outdo so many
In nearly a century
of Earth song?
Thru loss, travail, with strength when frail?"
Then with charm in her grin, perhaps she'll begin enlightening us to reminisce on those decades, yet gifts by our accounts, large if small.
Nonetheless Hints
on how love lasts well into years
we have left.
Her gestures to poor & ones downcast,
will our hearts yield where she taught us to last?
To cherish times past as Occasions,*

*her smile a' gleam, we'll hear her ask
"what did you dream?
How?"*

*With courage & joy, forgiveness & class,
with faith in tomorrow,
like Neomi, no sorrow....
Who's left us hope in our marrow.*

“*Dear Virginia and Michael, Wishing you comfort and peace during this time as you grieve the loss of your mom. She was a gem as I have fond memories of your parents photography and dance studio in the mall. I so enjoyed viewing their work. But most of all I remember her grand beautiful smile.
Sincerely,
