

ORLON EUGENE NEWSON

February 23, 1955 - February 13, 2018

Orlon Eugene Newson was born into the parentage of Earnest and Doris Newson on February 23rd 1955. He was their first child and only son of their 6 six children. His parents were Baptist and brought him to the faith at an early age.

He was active member at Wilmer Hutchins High School and graduated from the school in 1972.

He married Vanessa Majors in 1974 and they remained married for 43 years until the time of his passing.

Orlon worked long and hard multiple years with trucking and logistic companies in his life. After working over 10 years with UPS Freight he retired in 2017.

Orlon had a deep passion for spending time with his family. He enjoyed a good dominoes game with friends and family.

When he was younger he loved being outdoors. He could often be seen outside with his daughters and later grandchildren. He would be at the basketball court playing with family and friends alike. He also loved a good meal and his wife kept him well fed.

Orlon was a great son, brother, uncle, cousin, friend, father and husband and he will truly be deeply missed by all that knew him.

He is survived by: his wife Vanessa Majors Newson; four daughters, Regina Newson, Valerie Newson, Liza Murphy and Olivia Newson; three granddaughters, Haiden Wattley (Valerie), Rylie Newson (Valerie) and Claire Hemphill (Regina); his mother and father Earnest and Doris Newson; his 5 sisters, Pamela Walker (Glen), Mary Newson, Vivian Hall (Raydell), Carla Newson and Cheryl Newson; grand aunt, Jean Payne; multiple nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts and cousins.
