“ Rachel you are missed. We were not around each other as adults. But you were my cousin and I love my family. I love you cousin. Rest In Heaven.

“ Racheal I tried to reach out to you and your family after my release from prison.I wanted to met Charles ;but you said, "No!" You never made an effort to allow me to meet your children either.I tried to reach out to you knowing that you said bad things about me after finding out I was being released from prison 9/1/16. I have Aids, you didn't want to be around me?What did I do to deserve that?I hadn't been around you in 31years...looking back on my journey during my stay in prison ,coming to terms with this.I have reason you felt I favored toward Sebrina more than you.Rachel you had the same opportunity to take time out and keep close contact with me while in prison.I tried to reach out to you numerous of times concerning you and your children.You never replied. You wrote me twice out of 31...I have always stressed family unity.I do realize that our mother didn't instill such values do to her distant relationship concering her own siblings.Family unity starts from home.I am just lucky that our grandmother Willie Mae Redwine instilled me at an early age the true value of family.I met your eldest son one time.Shawking !!! I never met Bobby nor have I ever met Henry.Awful... There are lots of things that could have been done differently ; that's all too late.I recall you reach- out to me on Facebook by saying,"Life is too short to not to forgive."Im not a Facebook kind of person, but after your passing----I went to your page and found out you had tried to reach out to me.First off too many people use Cyber Connections inorder to stress their feelings instead of picking up the telephone.How did I know you were feeling some kind of way?I forgave you a longtime ago ;but I just didn't forget.A lot of people do wrong to people and instantly want forgiveness but don't want to forgive in--- turn.I think a backlash coming from a family member hurts more than oppossed stranges.We all need to pick up the phone instead of Facebook...I know your spirit is looking down on this public letter.I love you...R.I.P/ Song lyrics by : JANET JACKSON " TogetherAgain "
