

TONI DEENISE WILLIS

April 11, 1953 - January 12, 2021

Toni was born on April 11, 1953. She was survived by her children Gregory Willis, Frederick Willis, Kendrick Willis, Demond Willis, Angel Burns, and April Wyer.

She was the 5th oldest of 15 children; she attended Garland Independent School district where she met and married the late Odis Willis. Toni accepted Christ at an early age at El Bethel Baptist Church in Rowlett, Texas under the leadership of Rev. Johnson.

Toni was always a straight talker with a loving and charming personality. In her earlier years, she worked as a beautician and later started her own beauty supply store. She had a love for cooking, family, collecting butterflies, and most of all she loved and knew the lord. She continued her life working in home healthcare and the school district.

She leaves behind her grandchildren, one great grandchild, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

*It's so hard to say goodbye, meet .Miss Toni at work DISD she was very quiet and I started talking to her. And we became friends. I knew something was going on Ms. Toni and I could not understand, now I see it was not for me to understand see when you are in God's hand it's not for you to understand.
Now I say to my friend RIP Ms.Toni love you Kathy*
