“ I’ve had multiple emotional moments within this past week. I’ve been trying to come to terms with the fact that you are no longer here. I miss you so much. I remember when I was eight years old you came into town and you made me breakfast and for some ungodly reason you made me a whole pack of bacon, that I ate with no issue. I never knew that my mom told you, that bacon was one of my favorite things to eat for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. That morning you made me breakfast and you gave me the nickname “Bacon Eater” For the last 20 years that has been “MY” nickname that I’ve answered too. I am going to miss 😭 I am going to miss you. I’m going to miss that country accent and the love that came attached with it. So to my family in Killeen, TX Little Rock, Arkansas I honestly pray your strength and I speak healing and understanding and pray you all seek comfort during this time. To my Aunt/Cousin Virginia Dell Williams, I’ll see you on the other side.

“ Thank you Ms. Virginia Dell for loving my children. You always asked about them, how they were doing or are they okay. I would tell you they ate fine then you would ask specifically about Bacon Eater and Booty. That's Devan and Amari. You gave them those names and they thought that was funny and they smiled when you said. From Mark Jr., Lil Torrie, Bacon Eater and Booty they will forever remember Cousin Virginia Dell in Texas. They would say that when they were smaller. They're all grown up now with families of their own accept Amari. They'll miss you also. We love you Cousin Virginia Dell. You were more like an aunt and a sister to my mom. Who you called Red when she got mad. 😂 She's mad at me now... No surprise there but I wont go there today. We as a whole family will never forget you. You took your rest now. Today some will say goodbye at your Homegoing. We never got to say goodbye but its okay. You knew who was there for you and who was not. Love you always... Reynolds, Porter and Walker i.e. Posha

“ I will for sure rember you Ms. Virginia Dell til the day I die. I will miss our talks, our laughs and remember you always taking me to the bible for whatever I was griping about. Im going to miss your spirit and the fact that you were a cigarette smoker and a 2 fisted drinker. You loved your Milwaukee Best beer, the gold can. You had to give all that up as you got older but you always remained the same high spirited ready to fight at the drop of a dime over me. You would day dont mess with my Posha 😂. That's the last thing that Im going to miss, you calling me Posha. You were the only person in my life who called me that and I don't ever want to hear that pronunciation of my name again in this lifetime. My name is Porsha and I will always love you Ms. Virginia Dell... Until we meet again. Bye. I never got to say that to you but I did get to say Happy Birthday on June 12th. The last time I heard your voice and you said my name. I will remember that. God Bless You... Bye again Posha
