“ I can remember Will as far back as I remember my First Cousin, Noddie. I was a little younger than they were and they were a married couple. As kids we always referred to them as Cutting Noddie and Cutting Will. (Cutting meaning Cousin.) Don't think I ever saw one without the other as they were self-employed from way back and worked together. This was a cousin that I always looked up to and thought of as a good role model. There was a period of time as I grew up and was away from my beloved cousins, but they will always have a special place and respect in my heart. Rest in Peace Will. Love you.
