“ Willie was our neighbor. He was a such a kind person. I came home one day and he was mowing our yard. I went inside and told my husband. My husband went outside to pay him. He didn't want to take it but he made him. He along with with his wife, were always trying to do something for us. He will be truly missed, to his family, you have lost a very kind, loving and Christian man. May God comfort you during this time.
