“ Willie B. and Darryl were my friends as teenagers all the way to adulthood. Everyday was fun being around Willie B. and Darryl, we played Football in the field in front of the house on Garapan, near Saner, we would walk to Kiest Park to the then newly built gym to play basketball, sometimes, we would walk in hundered degree heat to the Swimming Pool at Sprague Stadium snd back. Yes, we could swim, we would go to the bottom of this 13 feet deep pool and do hand signals. Willie B. and Darryl had motorcycles. Willie B. could tell by the sound of a motorcycle in the distance what type of Motorcycle it was. My Wife, Dorothy told me told me that she had seen Willie B. working as a Funeral Motorcycle escort, I was happy to hear about that Willie B. was doing something that he was passionate about. Willie B. and Darryl taught me how to put skates on Combat, Jump Boots, Vietnam Era Boots, a skill that I will be using in a few weeks, as I need a new pair of Boots and Roller Skates. Lillie Mae and L.C. were welcoming and allowed me to go inside of the Garapan House as if I was family, I don't think that Reno the German Sheppard was ok with that. I miss Willie B. I wish that we could have stayed in contact. I hope that Darryl is ok. God is good, in John 14 Jesus said that he would prepare a place for us, that where he is there he will be also.

“ Willie B was my Uncle as well as my brother, we were always together, people would always say there's Darryl and Willie B. We grew up together since the age of 13. We rode motorcycles together, got in trouble together, and celebrated together.

Willie B had a huge personality, he was always larger than life, and his weekly phone calls and 'news update' about everyone and everything will be greatly missed, as Willie B knew everybody, and everybody knew Willie B.

I loved him and am now left wondering what struggles and challenges he was facing that brought his life to such a tragic end. I pray that he finds rest in the arms of the Savior, and eternal peace for his soul.

You will be missed, loved, and never forgotten!
